

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

November 15, 2007

Lisa Birkman Receives Endorsement from Williamson County Sheriff's Association

Lisa Birkman, Williamson County Commissioner Precinct 1, has received the endorsement of the Williamson County Sheriff's Association in her re-election campaign. Of the endorsement, Commissioner Birkman stated, "I am honored to receive this endorsement from such an exemplary group of citizens. Williamson County has been my home most of my life, and I look forward to continuing to serve my community as Commissioner."

Commissioner Birkman's involvement in the community around her extends beyond her duties with Williamson County. She is on the Board of Directors of the Williamson County Sheriff's Office Brown Santa Program, and she is a member of St. Philip's United Methodist Church, the Williamson County A&M Club, the 100 Club of Central Texas and People Against Violent Crime. Her current term began May 3, 2004, and she is the first woman to hold a seat on the Williamson County Commissioner's Court.

"Commissioner Birkman is an invaluable asset to the citizens of Williamson County with a proven track record of support for law enforcement. She is the best candidate for the office of Precinct 1 Commissioner. This organization will do all it can to assist in her reelection and we urge the citizens of Precinct 1 to return this honorable public servant to the Commissioner's Court." states Royger Harris, President of the Williamson County Sheriff's Association.

The Williamson County Sheriff's Association is comprised of approximately 250 members who work for the Sheriff's Department and provide community service through the unification its members' personal involvements in Departmental, Political, and Community issues.

For more information:

www.lisabirkman.com

For media inquiries:

Kristina Vallejo, 512.671.9400

kvallejo@peergroupconsulting.com

###